

CLUB CHAT

October 2019

Hi Members

September night meeting was very enjoyable. We had Kevin from Progear give a talk to our members on the Benro Filter System. There was a draw for a Benro Filter Kit starter pack and a 6 stop filter, valued together at $374. Everyone who attended the meeting got an entry ticket into the draw. Ross Muir's ticket number was drawn and Ross very graciously declined the prize, so a redraw took place and Nive Stowers was the lucky club member to get the kit.

Feedback from Nive:

Having Kevin was very educational and I learnt quite a lot from his presentation. What a beautiful personality and such a gentleman. I'd love to have him visit again. But the bonus of the night was me winning the wonderful Benro filter starter kit. This will be something for me to learn to use and will be another challenge for me. Kevin, watch out for my photos 😊

From personal experience Kevin gives fantastic support, even to crazy ladies who ring up and tell him they are on the side of the road and need him to run through, on the phone, how to put the filter kit on our cameras again, as we thought we could remember the instructions, but turned out we couldn't !!

Thanks Kevin for taking the time to come to our Club and give a talk. Everyone enjoyed your presentation. Great that you could stay for the whole evening as well.

October Dates

Club Meeting:

Date: 8th October

Set Subject: In The Kitchen

Judge: Robin Short

Hippy Night

October meeting will have a Hippy theme, so have a look in the back of your wardrobes and see if there is anything in there a few decades old and come along dressed up.

We have a friend who has Nisi filters and she has moved to the Benro system where she can still use her Nisi filters in the Benro frames, as the frames will take several brands of filter glass.

If you need more information please pop into the Progear store located in Newmarket and have a chat with Kevin.

External Competition: PSNZ Canon On Line Round 4 Results

Congratulations to our very own Lynn Fothergill who was awarded the Number 1 image for Round Four of the Canon on Line competition. A beautiful image, well done Lynn. This is the second time this year that Lynn has won first place in this competition. Fantastic.

The selector for Canon On Line Round 4 was Michael Boyd-Clark APSNZ of Auckland.

Michael's comments for Lynns winning image were - In making my selection I was guided by the immediate and emotional impact of your image. An absolute joy to behold! The happy emotion emanating for this delightful image is almost tangible.

News from David Smith...

At the opening of the exhibition in Wellington marking 70 years of China's progress towards modern nationhood, Her Excellency the Ambassador of the Peoples Republic of China graciously accepted a copy of my book of photographs of Wuzhen. I gave the book to her in recognition of the warmth and hospitality of the Chinese people extended to me during my visits to China as a tourist.

The exhibition included 10 prints of my photos, chosen by the embassy. The exhibition organizer, Meng Tao, is on the left.

The image was sent to me by Simon Hoyle of Southlight, based in Days Bay, Wellington. Simon was also a contributing photographer.

Fantastic news David. Congratulations on having your images on display

This is an amusing link to the Petapixel.com website which has the Comedy Wildlife Photography Award images that prove nature has a sense of humour. These are really amazing photos.
